Dear Ms. Swinburn:

This is in reference to your Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) request dated December 21, 2015. Your request was received in our office on the same day and assigned FOIA case number DON-NAVY-2016-002091.

Upon review of your request, we contacted the command most likely to retain the documents that you are requesting the Commander, Navy Office of Legislative Affairs (OLA) to conduct a search. That office located documents 11 documents, 73 pages, responsive to your request.

The document titled U.S. Navy Artic Roadmap 2014-2030 is publically available at:

http://www.navy.mil/docs/USN_arctic_roadmap.pdf

Three of these documents are released to you in the entirety.

The remaining (7) documents have been determined to contain instances of personally identifiable information (PII), such as the names, dates of birth, and social security numbers of individuals. These instances of PII are exempt from disclosure under 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6), since release of this information would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of their personal privacy.

Because your request is partially denied, you are advised of your right to appeal this determination by writing to:

Office of the Judge Advocate General
1322 Patterson Ave, SE, Ste 3000
Washington Navy Yard, DC 20374-5066

Your appeal must be postmarked within ninety calendar days from the date of this letter. A copy of your initial request and this letter must accompany the appeal. The appeal should be marked "FREEDOM OF INFORMATION APPEAL" both on the envelope and the face of the letter. In order to expedite the appellate process and ensure full consideration of your appeal, your appeal should contain a brief statement of the reasons you believe this decision to be in error.

In this instance, the fees associated with processing this request were below the minimum threshold and have not been assessed. Please be advised, however, that fees, fee categories, and fee waivers are determined on a case-by-case basis, and a previous determination has no influence on future determinations.

For this determination, you have the right to seek dispute resolution services from the DoD Navy Component FOIA Public Liaison, Mr. Chris Julka, at Christopher.a.julka@navy.mil or (703) 697-0031.

Questions regarding the action this office has taken to process your request may be directed to our FOIA Service Center at (202) 685-0412.

Sincerely,
